Adjustments due to COVID-19

EEVI is delivering this course fully online. Resources are available and assessment submitted digitally via Moodle and learning participation and observable assessment occurs via Zoom.

Students are required to follow the same timetable as is scheduled for face-to-face classes. Students are required to log into the Moodle classrooms as per their schedule for the delivery conducted by Trainers. Trainers are available for learners online during the session or via email or phone outside of the scheduled sessions. These sessions are monitored and the system tracks student log-ins. Reports are accessed from Moodle to monitor student attendance.

As EEVI utilises digital resources which are uploaded into its Learning Management System, Moodle, it has not required to make major adjustments to its training and assessment resources. Where group activities were involved and observances required, these will be done online.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

Elite Education Vocational Institute (EEVI) supports the national policy of recognition of qualifications and Statements of Attainment issued by other Registered Training Organisations (RTO). Credit Transfer will only be offered for the units of competency packaged within the qualification offered by EEVI.

An application can be made for RPL if the student believes that they have already attained the necessary skills and competencies elsewhere (work, other study etc.). An RPL application form is available from the Manager, Student Administration Services upon request. Students must provide documentation to support their application.
