Pathways into the qualification

Preferred pathways for candidates considering this qualification include:

Students may find a pathway to this qualification from the Certificate IV level course in Business, or by working in an organisational or administrative role. Conversely, it may also apply to those with little or no vocational experience, but who possess sound theoretical business skills and knowledge that they would like to develop in order to create further educational and employment opportunities.

Pathways from the qualification

Following the Diploma, Student's may choose to continue their studies with Advanced Diploma of Leadership and Management.

Adjustments due to COVID-19

EEVI is delivering this course fully online. Resources are available and assessment submitted digitally via Moodle and learning participation and observable assessment occurs via Zoom.

Students are required to follow the same timetable as is scheduled for face-to-face classes. Students are required to log into the Moodle classrooms as per their schedule for the delivery conducted by Trainers. Trainers are available for learners online during the session or via email or phone outside of the scheduled sessions. These sessions are monitored and the system tracks student log-ins. Reports are accessed from Moodle to monitor student attendance.

As EEVI utilises digital resources which are uploaded into its Learning Management System, Moodle, it has not required to make major adjustments to its training and assessment resources. Where group activities were involved and observances required, these will be done online.

Course Description

This course is accredited by the Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA). Access the following link for further information regarding the accreditation of this course <http://training.gov.au/Organisation/Details/45018>.

This qualification will benefit graduates by strengthening their existing management and leadership skills with a powerful framework to enhance their individual leadership and managerial abilities. This course focuses on both personal management and professional development. It places emphasis on self-managing performance, work priorities and time management, while also taking responsibility for your professional development within the context of an organisation.

Recognition of Prior Learning

Elite Education Vocational Institute (EEVI) supports the national policy of recognition of qualifications and Statements of Attainment issued by other Registered Training Organisations (RTO), regardless of the location, provided that the RTO is registered to offer units of competency which exist within the qualification offered by EEVI and which may also exist in other Training Packages.

An application can be made for RPL when the student believes that they have already attained the necessary skills and competencies elsewhere (work other study etc.). An RPL application form is available from the Student Support Officer upon request.

The student will be required to provide documentation to support their application. The application will be processed and an assessment made as to the success or otherwise of the application. The student will be notified in writing of the result. The Student must sign (or otherwise accept) the 'Record of Course Credit Granted'.
